Forty Hadith on Character

CHAPTER ONE
Truthfulness

Whoever reflects upon the condition of the early generations will find that they were the most eager of people in following the Sunnah and the furthest of people from innovations in the religion. This chapter gathers narrations about truthfulness.

Chapter: What has come regarding truthfulness

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said: "Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise."

SAHIH AL-BUKHARI

It is therefore necessary for the student to begin with the most important matters, then those which follow them in importance, without neglecting the etiquette of learning and acting upon what he learns.

1. The first benefit of this narration is that it encourages the believer, and it shows the virtue of the deed mentioned.

2. The second benefit is that the reward is from Allah alone.

Chapter: The reward of the truthful

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said: "Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise."

SAHIH AL-BUKHARI

It is therefore necessary for the student to begin with the most important matters, then those which follow them in importance, without neglecting the etiquette of learning and acting upon what he learns.

1. The first benefit of this narration is that it encourages the believer, and it shows the virtue of the deed mentioned.

2. The second benefit is that the reward is from Allah alone.

CHAPTER TWO Patience

It is therefore necessary for the student to begin with the most important matters, then those which follow them in importance, without neglecting the etiquette of learning and acting upon what he learns. This chapter gathers narrations about patience.

Chapter: Patience at the first strike

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said: "Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise."

SAHIH AL-BUKHARI

This is the methodology that the righteous predecessors followed, and it is the methodology of the people of the Sunnah in every era, as the author explains in detail in the following pages of this treatise.

1. The first benefit of this narration is that it encourages the believer, and it shows the virtue of the deed mentioned.

2. The second benefit is that the reward is from Allah alone.

Chapter: The patience of the Prophets

Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said: "Truthfulness leads to righteousness, and righteousness leads to Paradise."

SAHIH AL-BUKHARI

This is the methodology that the righteous predecessors followed, and it is the methodology of the people of the Sunnah in every era, as the author explains in detail in the following pages of this treatise.

1. The first benefit of this narration is that it encourages the believer, and it shows the virtue of the deed mentioned.

2. The second benefit is that the reward is from Allah alone.